Prince Ferdinand's Head Quarters at Saxenhauſen, July 21.

WE have received the following authentic Relation of the Action near Epſdorff of the 16th Inſtant, between the Troops, under the Command of the Hereditary Prince of Brunſwick, and thoſe of the Enemy under Major-General de Glaubitz.

Upon Advice that a Detachment of the Enemy, conſiſting of ſix Battalions, and the Regiment of Berchini, under the Command of Major-General de Glaubitz, was advancing towards Ziegenhayn, and was actually encamped at Waſberg; his Serene Highneſs the Hereditary Prince, was detached from Saxenhauſen the 15th at Night, for Fritzlar, towards which Place ſix Battalions of the Army had already filed off. He marched early the next Morning to Zweſten, where General Luckner with his Regiment of Huſſars, as alſo Elliott's Regiment of Light Dragoons (that were juſt arrived) joined him. They continued their march, and arrived that Evening at Treyſa; but M. de Glaubitz had already marched from Waſberg and encamped at Epſdorff. Our Troops being fatigued, paſſed the Night at Treyſa, and marched the 16th to Speckwinkel, where Major Fridiricks was poſted with his Chaſſeurs, and to which Place Colonel Freytag had advanced with one of his Brigades. Our Infantry did not arrive till eleven in the Morning. The Hereditary Prince himſelf went forward and reconnoitered the Enemy's Poſition, and found their Camp placed at the opening of the Mountains, with their left extending to a Wood before Epſdorff, with the Village of Erxdorff before their Right; he took with him five Battalions, placed the Foot Chaſſeurs, and a Brigade of Chaſſeurs on Horſeback at the Head of an advanced Guard, and made a Detour of near two Leagues acroſs the Woods, Mountains, and the Village of Wolfskulter, in order to gain the left Flank of the Enemy, who thinking themſelves very ſecure, were ſurprized in their Camp, and had only Time to place two Battalions upon their Flank; but theſe, after the firſt Attack made upon them by the Chaſſeurs, were routed by the ſecond Regiment of Heſſian Guards, the Colonel of which, M. Naurodt, was wounded at the firſt Diſcharge. Four Pieces of Cannon played from the Wood upon the Camp, and five Battalions immediately drew out, and wheeling about puſhed the Enemy, who had ſcarce formed themſelves behind their Camp. While this paſſed, General Luckner, whom the Prince had left in a Bottom before Speewinkel with the Cavalry, and a Battalion of Bahr (Hanoverian) got up the Heights upon the firſt firing, and attacked the Right of the Enemy; (where M. de Glaubitz had placed Berchini's Regiment) and received a general Diſcharge from all the Muſquetry of thoſe that could get to their Arms, as well as from the Artillery that was ready to play. The Enemy was put to Flight, and paſſed a Wood which was behind them; the Rear Guard only ſhewing ſome Appearance of Reſiſtance. All their Baggage, Artillery, and Tents, were taken. They retired by Langenſtein, to which place Bath's Battalion purſued them. From thence having thrown themſelves into another Wood, the ſame Battalion paſſed through Langenſtein, and poſted themſelves upon the Stone Bridge that is over the River Ohme.

During this Time, the Cavalry had got up to our Right, and keeping cloſe to the Side of the Enemy, had cut them off from the Road that leads to Amænebourg; and it being impoſſible for our Infantry to follow them, the Hereditary Prince took with him Elliot's Regiment of Light Dragoons, got together ſome Huſſars, and paſſed in Purſuit of them in the Wood, which they had reached on the other Side of the Ohme; and finding them again on their march in the Plain, in their Way to Niederkleyn, he charged and broke through them four or five different Times; at laſt ſeparated 500 Men from the Body, ſurrounded them, and obliged them to lay down their Arms. Not ſatisfied with this, he marched againſt the Remainder of the Enemy's Infantry, which had thrown itſelf into Neiderkleyn, and had fixed themſelves near a Wood, ſurrounded them, and ſummoned them to ſurrender, which was accordingly done. Berchini's Regiment was likewiſe either entirely taken, or cut to Pieces by Luckner's Huſſars.

Among the Priſoners of the greateſt Note, are Major-General Glaubitz himſelf, and the Prince of Anhalt, who is a Brigadier; Count Helffenberg and Count Muſchinſki were killed by the ſame Cannon Ball. On our Side, the brave Colonel Freytag was dangerouſly wounded; M. Derenthal, Prince Ferdinand's Aid-de-Camp, received a Shot in his Thigh; M. Walmſden, Major of Brigade, had his Horſe killed under him, and M. Normand, Major-General Bahr's Aid-de-Camp, had his Head taken off by the laſt Cannon Shot the Enemy fired. Our Loſs has, upon the whole, not been very conſiderable. Our Trophies are nine Pieces of Cannon (almoſt all of which we owe to the Intrepidity of Elliot's Regiment, which, for it's firſt Appearance in the Field, has done Wonders) five Pieces of Artillery, and a Haubitzer. Major-General Bahr, and M. de Biſchauſen, had the Honour to command the Infantry under the Prince's Orders, which ſhewed throughout the whole as much Courage as Good will, to march on and engage, though harraſſed and almoſt exhauſted by the fatigues of their march.

The following is the Number killed, wounded, and miſſing, from the Regiments under the Command of the Hereditary Prince of Brunſwick, at the aforeſaid Action, viz.

Copy of a Letter from the Marquis of Granby to the Earl of Holderneſſe.

My LORD,

IT is with the greateſt Satisfaction, that I have the Honour of acquainting your Lordſhip of the Succeſs of the Hereditary Prince, Yeſterday Morning.

General Sporcken's Corps marched from the Camp at Kalle to Liebenau, about Four in the Afternoon of the 29th; the Hereditary Prince followed, the ſame Evening, with a Body of Troops, among which were the two Engliſh Battalions of Grenadiers, the two of Highlanders, and four Squadrons of Dragoons, Cope's and Conway's.

The Army was under Arms all Day on the 30th; and, about Eleven at Night, marched off in ſix Columns to Liebenau. About Five the next Morning, the whole Army aſſembled, and formed on the Heights near Corbeke. The Hereditary Prince was, at this Time, marching in two Columns, in order to turn the Enemy's left Flank; which he did, by marching to Donhelbourg, leaving Klein-Eder on his Left, and forming in two Lines, with his Left towards Doſſel, and his Right near Grimbeck, oppoſite to the left Flank of the Enemy, whoſe Poſition was, with the Left to the high Hill near Oſſendorff, and their Right to Warbourg, into which Place they had flung Fiſcher's Corps. The Hereditary Prince immediately attacked the Enemy's Flank; and, after a very ſharp Diſpute, obliged them to give way; and, by a continual Fire, kept forcing them to fall back upon Warbourg. The Army was, at this Time, marching with the greateſt Diligence to attack the Enemy in Front; but the Infantry could not get up in Time; General Waldegrave, at the Head of the Britiſh, preſſed their March as much as poſſible; no Troops could ſhew more Eagerneſs to get up, than they ſhewed. Many of the Men, from the Heat of the Weather, and over-ſtraining themſelves to get on, through moraſſy and very difficult Ground, ſuddenly dropped down on their March.

General Moyſtyn, who was at the Britiſh Cavalry that was formed on the Right of our Infantry, on the other Side of a large Wood, upon receiving the Duke's Orders to come up with the Cavalry as faſt as poſſible, made ſo much Expedition, bringing them up at a full Trot, though the Diſtance was near five Miles, that the Britiſh Cavalry had the Happineſs to arrive in Time, to ſhare the Glory of the Day, having ſucceſsfully charged, ſeveral Times, both the Enemy's Cavalry and Infantry.

I ſhould do Injuſtice to the General Officers, to every Officer and private Man, of the Cavalry, if I did not beg your Lordſhip would aſſure his Majeſty, that nothing could exceed their gallant Behaviour on that Occaſion.

Captain Philips made ſo much Expedition with his Cannon, as to have an Opportunity, by a ſevere Cannonade, to oblige thoſe who had paſſed the Dymel, and were formed on the other Side, to retire with the utmoſt Precipitation.

I received his Serene Highneſs's Orders Yeſterday in the Evening, to paſs the River after them, with the 12 Britiſh Battalions, and 10 Squadrons; and am now encamped upon the Heights of Wilda, about four Miles from Warbourg, on the Heights of which their grand Army is encamped.

M. de Muy is now retiring from the Heights of Volkmeiſſen, where he lay under Arms laſt Night, towards Wolfſhagen. I cannot give your Lordſhip an Account of the Loſs on either Side. Captain Faucitt, whom I ſend off with this, ſhall get all the Intelligence he can upon this Head before he ſets off. I am, &c. GRANBY.

P. S. Saturday Morning Six o'Clock. As I had not an Opportunity of ſending off Captain Faucitt ſo ſoon as I intended, I opened my Letter to acquaint your Lordſhip, that I have juſt joined the grand Army with my Detachment.

Rome, July 5. The Miniſter of Portugal having demanded an Audience of the Pope, the 2d Inſtant, it was refuſed him, becauſe a Courier arrived a few Hours before from Cardinal Acciaoli, with Advice, that he had been obliged to leave Liſbon. Soon after another Courier arrived at the Houſe of the Portugueſe Miniſter, who immediately ordered all the Portugueſe to quit Rome. It is computed there are 2000 of them in this City.

Cardinal Corſini having undertaken to compromiſe Matters, the Miniſter, and all that are dependent on the Crown of Portugal, are not yet ſet out; and Yeſterday Morning a Courier was ſent away to Liſbon with a Plan of Accommodation. In the mean Time it is agreed that the Portugueſe ſhall ſuſpend their Departure from hence for three Months.

The Neapolitan Troops ſtill encamp on the Confines of the Eccleſiaſtical State, and the King of Sardinia's Army is encamped on the Banks of the Po.

Hamburgh, July 11. All our Veſſels which were detained in the Ports of France have been releaſed.

Conſtantinople, June 18. The Plague has not been at Aleppo for 12 Years; at preſent it carries off every third Perſon. This is not the only Calamity which that City labours under. Numerous Gangs of Villains infeſt its Neighbourhood, who rob and murder all that come in their Way. The Baſſa's Lieutenant being ſent in Purſuit of them with his Troops, they defeated him, and took him Priſoner, and after cutting off his Ears and Noſe, ſent him back to Aleppo.

According to Letters from Smyrna of the 10th of June, the Plague makes equal Havock in that City. All the Europeans of Fortune have fled to the Country.

Stutgard, the Capital of Wirtemberg, July 23. Our Troops began to be in Motion this Day. A Body of 12,000 Foot and Horſe, with a Train of 40 Pieces of Cannon, will march through the Countries of Hohenlohe, Anſpach, and Wurtzbourg, into Saxony. They are to act as a ſeparate Corps, under the Command of the Duke our Sovereign, who heads them himſelf, in Support of the common Cauſe, at his own private Expence.

Hanover, Auguſt 14. The Garriſon of Oſnabrug being compoſed only of Invalids, was ordered to evacuate that Place, and the French have accordingly taken Poſſeſſion of it. A Detachment of the Garriſon of Weſel has alſo taken Poſſeſſion of the County of Benthem, after ſeizing the Caſtle, where they took 70 Priſoners.

Things have been pretty quiet upon our Frontiers ſince General Luckner obliged the French to retire from Embeck. The Enemy's Troops and ours alternately occupy Nordheim. Our Hunters Yeſterday attacked a Detachment of the Enemy near Nordheim, diſperſed them, and took 300 Priſoners, with 10 Officers. The Corps de Reſerve under the Command of Prince Xavierus of Saxony, retreated the 9th Inſtant, as far as Adelepſen, near Munden.

Prince Ferdinand's Head Quarters at Warbourg, Auguſt 12. After the Defeat of the Corps commanded by M. de Muy the 31ſt of July near Warbourg, the Remains of which fled to Corbach, Marſhal Broglio came and encamped with the main Army oppoſite Warbourg, with his Head Quarters at Oberlihing. M. de St. Victor, with 2000 Volunteers, was poſted in the Wood of Sallabourg, which fills up the Corner formed by the Dymel and the Weſer. Prince Ferdinand gave Orders to drive them from thence, on which Account M. de Donop marched there the Day before Yeſterday in the Evening, and attacked them Yeſterday at Seven in the Morning, with ſo much Succeſs, that after about an Hour's Engagement, he defeated and diſperſed the whole Corps, took three Pieces of Cannon, and above 200 Priſoners; and the Number of the Slain was very conſiderable.

The Count de Luſace, after having occupied the Town of Caſſel, which we had evacuated, afterwards paſſed the Defile of Munden, and encamped with 20 Battalions, and 30 Squadrons, at Dransfeld, half Way on the Road to Gottingen. General Luckner is at Eimbeck. On the 9th he killed the Enemy upwards of 50 Men, and took 37 Priſoners, and among them five Officers. The 10th he attacked a Detachment near Salzterhalden, 64 of whom he left dead upon the Spot, and took 80 Priſoners, among whom were ſeven Officers. Yeſterday near Nordheim he forced a Detachment of 332 Horſe, under the Command of M. Vander Meer, to lay down their Arms, and ſurrender Priſoners of War. Theſe Succeſſes are, we hope, the Preludes to ſome deciſive Stroke.

The March of the Wirtemberg Troops has met with ſome Obſtacles. The Duke refuſed to march unleſs he was allowed to ſhare in the Contributions which were to be raiſed in the Territories of the Houſe of Brunſwick, &c. which it was not thought proper to conſent to; but he has Leave to plunder the flat Country, and to appropriate to himſelf whatever he can get by that Means; which ſeems to ſatisfy his Serene Highneſs. His Troops were to arrive the 19th at Meinungen, where they are to begin their Exploits.

LONDON, July 29.

Friday Afternoon freſh Orders were iſſued for eight Men more out of each Company of the three Regiments of Foot Guards, to get immediately ready to follow thoſe who went off in the Morning for Graveſend, in order to embark for Germany.

The whole Reinforcement intended to be ſent will amount, it is ſaid, to 10,000 effective Men, excluſive of Commiſſion and Non-commiſſion Officers, and Drums.

The Rope-houſes and Store-houſes, that were conſumed by the late dreadful Fire at Portſmouth, are to be forthwith rebuilt on a new Plan, drawn up by an experienced Engineer, for their greater Security.

The Utrecht Gazette tells us, in an Article from Naples, "That on the 16th of June, about Four in the Afternoon, under the Sea of Portici, within Sight of Naples, there was a moſt terrible Earthquake: The Waters divided, and the People ſaw the Bottom dry, during the Space of two Minutes."

Letters by Yeſterday's Mails adviſe, that they work Night and Day at Dunkirk in fitting out, at the Expence of the Government, a ſmall Squadron of Frigates, to cruize in Concert.

Auguſt 5. We hear that General Elliot, who trained, by indefatigable Induſtry, the brave Fellows that have juſt done him and their Country ſo much Honour, at Emſdorff, will have the late Sir John Cope's Regiment of Dragoons; that Lord Pembroke will get Elliott's Light Horſe; and that Major Erſkine will ſucceed Lord Pembroke, as their Lieutenant-Colonel.

Auguſt 7. A Swediſh Man of War of 36 Guns, coming from Seville, was accidentally burnt and blown up, in the Bay of Cadiz.

Auguſt 9. By Accounts from all Parts of the Kingdom, there never was a greater Plenty of all Kinds of Grain.

From May 1, 1756, to July 25, 1760, 122 Veſſels, belonging or conſigned to the Port of Liverpool, have been taken by the French; 24 of which have been retaken, ſeven ranſomed, three reſtored, two ſunk, and one ſtranded.

The Behaviour of Elliott's new raiſed Regiment of Light Horſe, the very firſt Time they were called upon, pleads more forcibly in Favour of a National Militia, than any Thing that has been, or that could be ſaid in the Senate.—It is certain that the higheſt Commendations are due to the Commanding Officer, who, by the moſt admirable Diſcipline, has in ſo ſhort a Time rendered thoſe Heroes an Over-match for French Veterans; but as it would be doing them the utmoſt Injuſtice to impute their Intrepidity entirely to Diſcipline, ſo it ſhould follow (notwithſtanding the Inſinuations and Sneers of many Gentlemen of the Army and others, whoſe Intereſt it is to oppoſe it) that as our Countrymen in general already poſſeſs the moſt eſſential Conſtituents in the Character of a true Soldier, the Militia of theſe Kingdoms, properly diſciplined, will prove as able, as they have ſhewn themſelves willing, to repel any foreign Invaſion; and we make no Doubt, had it had the ſame Opportunities, it would e'er now have rivalled in Reputation the Swiſs Militia, which few regular Forces have attacked with Impunity.

It is rumoured in Holland, that in Conſequence of a ſecret Convention between the Courts of Vienna and Verſailles, the Empreſs Queen is to cede to France, at the End of the War, in Conſideration of the Aſſiſtance received from that Crown, not Oſtend, and Nieuport, but the Dutchy of Luxembourg.

Auguſt 12. Advices from the Allied Army ſay, that within the Compaſs of ſix Weeks, ſome Thouſands of French Deſerters have gone over to the Allies.

Auguſt 19. Orders are ſent to all the Officers appointed for the Cuſtody of the French Priſoners of War in England, to keep a ſtrict Watch over them.

Auguſt 23. There does not remain above Six Hundred Thouſand Pounds unpaid of the Eight Millions ſubſcribed to the laſt public Loan to the Government; and between Two or Three Millions of this Subſcription were paid in many Months before the Payments became due, and this at a Time when our Enemies gave out that we were quite deſtitute of Money.

KINGSTON (in JAMAICA) September 6.

On Sunday laſt arrived at Port-Royal, his Majeſty's Sloop of War Port-Antonio, —— Gedoin, Eſq; Commander, from a Cruize, and brought in three Prizes.

Thurſday arrived at Port-Royal, ſent in by his Majeſty's Ship Boreas, —— Uvedale, Eſq; Commander, a Polacco from Marſeilles, bound to Cape François; Captain Uvedale has alſo burnt, in the Mole of St. Nicola, a large French Sloop Privateer, mounting 14 Guns, and 150 Men, commanded by that Miſcreant Fernandez (who inhumanly murdered Captain Stiles, as mentioned in a former Paper) the Wretch and his Crew made their Eſcape on Shore.

Same Evening was ſent in by the Renown, —— Mackenzie, Eſq; Commander, a ſmall French Sloop Privateer. And off the Weſt End of this Iſland, another French Sloop Privateer is taken by the Cerberus, —— Webber, Eſq; Commander.

BOSTON, October 13.

Extract of a Letter from Liſbon, Auguſt 12, 1760.

"Laſt Friday was poſted up at the Corners of the principal Streets in Liſbon, a Placart, commanding all Romans, the Subjects of the Pope, to retire out of this Kingdom before the End of next Month. In ſhort, a Rupture is declared openly between this Court and the Court of Rome, and all Correſpondence is ſtopt."

By a Gentleman, who came to Town laſt Wedneſday, in 17 Days from Quebec, and 12 from Montreal, by the Way of Crown-Point, we learn, that Mr Vaudreuil and Levy, and all the French Regulars with their Officers, a Number of Merchants and other Inhabitants at Montreal, and Parts adjacent, that had not complied with the Articles of Capitulation, were gone from thence with their moveable Effects for Quebec, where a Number of Tranſports are provided, in order for a general Embarkation from thence to France.—That Major Elliot was appointed to command at the Bay of Chaleurs and Gaſpee, and other Places down the River, and was to proceed thither with a Number of Troops to take Poſſeſſion; the Capitulation including in it, as we hear, not only all Canada, but likewiſe all the Territories thereon depending.——And, that Major Rogers, with a large Body of Rangers, were gone out upon a diſtant Expedition towards Lake Superior.

We hear that the Antelope Man of War, Capt. Webb, has taken a French Frigate of 36 Guns, near the Streights of Belleiſle; ſhe was laden with Fiſh, and bound to France.

NEW-YORK, October 20.

Friday laſt the Ship Britannia, Captain Tillet, arrived here from Philadelphia: He ſailed from thence the 30th ult. and in 3 Days after took in a Pilot at Sandy-Hook, but the Wind being then contrary could not get up; and on the 7th Inſtant was drove to Sea, in a violent Hurricane at N. E. which continued almoſt without Intermiſſion for 6 Days; moſt of which Time the Britannia was on her Beam Ends; when the Cargo ſhifted and the Chain Bolts were drawn out of the Sides without any Sail ſet. The 10th, the Heighth of the Gale, Capt. Tillet ſaw a large Ship with only her Fore-maſt ſtanding, but ſhe being to Windward could not ſpeak with her: The 13th he ſpoke with Captain Budden, in a Brig from Liſbon, loaded with Salt, for Philadelphia, who, in the ſame Gale, loſt all his Maſts, Boat, and Cabouſe, and had two Men waſhed overboard. Captain Tillet ſupplied him with every Thing he wanted, helped him to raiſe Jury-Maſts, took him in Tow for 36 Hours, and would have ſeen him ſafe into the Capes of Delaware, had not his Hawſer broke, when he left him in Lat. 36, Lon. 71, ſteering his proper Courſe.

The ſeveral Companies of Colonel Montgomery's Highland Regiment, who lately returned from Albany, embarked on Thurſday laſt, and fell down Yeſterday, to proceed for Halifax.

PHILADELPHIA, October 22.

Sunday laſt Captain Dingee arrived here from Jamaica. On the 6th Inſtant he met with a violent Gale of Wind off of Cape Hatteras, in which his Ship was thrown on her Beam Ends, which obliged him to throw over board ſome of his Guns, and he received conſiderable Damage in his Cargoe. On the 13th he ſpoke with Captain Foſter, in a Snow from Hull for Virginia, which had loſt her Maſts in the ſame Gale, and had taken up Captain Brown and his Crew, that belonged to a Schoonet from North-Carolina to New-York, which foundered at Sea.

The ſame Day Capt. Charles Stewart alſo came up from Jamaica. The 16th Inſtant he ſpoke with Capt. George Evans, in the Brig America, bound to New-York from Jamaica, in great Diſtreſs, having, on the 8th of this Month, been in a ſevere Storm, in which he ſhifted his Hold, and his Veſſel overſet, but, by cutting away his Main-maſt, ſhe righted again; however ſhe afterwards loſt her other Maſt, Bowſprit, Head, and every Thing on Deck. Captain Stewart ſpared him ſome Sails, Spars, Bread, Beef and Water; he was about 25 Leagues from the Land, and deſigned to get in here. Captain Stewart, on the 11th Inſtant, in Lat. 34, ſaw a Sloop without her Bowſprit and Boom; and Captain Evans met with the Hull of a Ship, with ſeveral Cheſts, and other Wreck about her.

Captain

Captain Nicholſon, likewiſe from Jamaica, loſt ſome Sails in the ſame Storm; and on the Coaſt ſpoke with a ſmall Schooner from Monti-Chriſti for Rhode Iſland, that had loſt her Main-maſt, and one of her Hands; and ſome time before the Schooner met with a Brig or Snow without Maſts, and no Body on board.

Captain Roſs, from Nevis, came up on Monday without his Bowſprit.

Captain Brown, from New-York to Jamaica, is loſt on Maguana; the People ſaved.

ANNAPOLIS, October 30.

We hear from Kent County, that Mr. Thomas Ringgold is Elected a Repreſentative for that County, in the Room of Alexander Williamſon, Eſq; Deceaſed.

We are informed that a Number of Tobacco Ships, who were collected together at York in Virginia, intended to ſail for London, as on Tueſday laſt; but we cannot hear of any Convoy.

Friday laſt, and in the ſucceeding Night, we had a hard ſoutherly Storm of Wind and Rain. At Dumfries in Virginia, a new Dwelling-Houſe was thereby blown down; and we have heard of ſeveral Tobacco-Houſes in this Province, which were full of Tobacco, being blown down and deſtroy'd; and greatly fear we ſhall hear of much more Miſchief being done thereby.

Saturday laſt, Captain John Turner, late of the Snow Good Intent of Philadelphia, with Part of his Company, came hither by Land from Virginia, on his Way to Philadelphia. This Snow, which was bound from Anguilla to Philadelphia, loaded with Salt, in a terrible Storm from N. E. to E. N. E. which laſted from the 6th to the 12th, near the Latitude of Bermuda, Foundered; after loſing all her Maſts, and having her Boat ſtove upon Deck, and juſt as ſhe was ſinking, they were providentially met with and taken off, by the Snow Beverly, from Glaſgow, Capt. Robert Montgomerie, and carried into Rappahannock.

On the 19th of October, the Ship King of Pruſſia, Thomas James, Maſter, arrived in Virginia from Briſtol.
